FINANCIAL SUPPORT

The project is co-financed
by the EU Commission Youth in Action Programme

This project wants to refer to the specific needs of young people in the region of Central and Eastern Europe. Due to factors such as unemployment, disabilities, issues related to sexual preference, geographical background and ethnic or religious identity, or their combination, far too many young people are excluded from opportunities to participate fully in society and to enjoy the benefits of education, employment and social welfare.

Workshop in Tbilisi is first of the two planned workshops of this project.

AIMS:

- Networking the partners
- Learning among the partners
- Expanding multi-perspective understanding of social inclusion of youth
- Handbook on innovative approaches to tackle social exclusion of young people

PARTICIPANTS

- interdiac partner organisation members, workers
- interdiac Pilot module students
- Others interested in this issue
- Professionals, volunteers, youth

REGISTRATION OF PARTICIPANTS

Do you want to take active part in this project?

Write the motivation letter (500 - 1000 words) answering the following questions:

- What is your experience with young people?
- Which young people and what kind work do they do?
- And why would you like to join it?
- What other training do you have in field of social work?
- What do you want to get from this course?

Send the motivation letter and attached application form till the 12th April 2010 to this address: programme-supporter@interdiac.eu

Selected applicants will be contacted and provided with further information after 16th April 2010. Their names will also be posted on the interdiac web page.
