

Invitation to the convivial conference...

...to celebrate the 10th anniversary of interdiac

Diversity – Conviviality - Unity

8th – 12th October 2018 // Kiev (Ukraine)

The full conference programme starts on 8th October at 14.00 and finishes on the 12th October at 13.00

A workshop organized by the interdiac research platform is an integral part of the conference and will take place from 11th October at 15.00 until 12th October at 13.00
The programme draft can be found at : https://www.interdiac.eu/Programme_draft_1_fv.pdf

Why are we organizing the conference?

- to enable sharing about Learning, Networking, Research and Development in Diaconia and Christian social practice in Central and Eastern Europe
- to express gratitude for all that has been achieved and celebrate the rich diversity and conviviality that is interdiac
- to strengthen our commitment to compassion for people – especially forgotten people in forgotten places
- to look forward to working in future for change in ourselves and the world around

Who is the conference for?

Everyone who have been walking with us since we were founded in 2008 and those who would like to know more and continue the journey with us

What will the programme include?

- celebration worship
- story-telling
- keynote address
- thematic workshops
- convivial evenings accompanied by music and creative performance
- a special surprise from our hosts

Financial matters:

Accommodation and food costs will be covered by the organizers.

Travel costs will be the responsibility of the delegates but in case of the need for support see the registration form.

Each participant is asked to contribute to the costs of the event with the payment of a fee of 30 €.

Proposals for contributions towards travel expenses and other donations can be found in the registration document.
